Representative Kuglitsch Sworn into Office for Third Term Jobs, Economy, and Government Reform to Remain the Focus

Madison – Today, Representative Mike Kuglitsch (R-New Berlin) was sworn in as the State Representative for the 84th Assembly District for his third term. Kuglitsch is part of a 63 seat majority in the 102nd Assembly Session.

“It is truly an honor to be the Assembly Representative for the People of New Berlin, Greenfield, and Milwaukee. It is humbling to be sworn for a third term in Madison. Over the next two years, my door will always be open and I will continue to work tirelessly for the citizens of the 84th Assembly District.”

“Over the past four years, we have made great strides forward in terms of fiscal stability and economic growth, however there are always ways we can improve this great state. I look forward to working with Governor Walker and our Assembly and Senate Majorities over the next biennium.”

Last month, Assembly Speaker Robin Vos (R-Rochester) appointed Kuglitsch to be Chairman of the Assembly Committee on Energy and Utilities. Kuglitsch was also appointed to the committees on Jobs and Economy, Workforce Development, and Labor.

“My priorities as a legislator have not changed in the four years I have been in office. Over the next biennium, I look forward to working on the issues at hand that would clean up the problems with the Government Accountability Board, expand our growing workforce, create proper education reforms for our children, and put more money into the hands of hard working taxpayers.”

“With a large majority in both the Assembly and the Senate, along with the strong leadership of Governor Scott Walker, I believe we can pass meaningful legislation that will benefit all Wisconsinites and move Wisconsin forward.”

Representative Kuglitsch’s office is located at 129 West in the State Capitol. He can be reached at 608-267-5158 or by e-mail at Rep.Kuglitsch@Legis.Wi.Gov.
